Online Course Statement of Accomplishment

HASHEM ZAHARAN

HAS SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETED A FREE ONLINE OFFERING OF TECHNOLOGY ENTREPRENEURSHIP PROVIDED BY STANFORD UNIVERSITY THROUGH VENTURE LAB.

TECHNOLOGY ENTREPRENEURSHIP

This online course introduced the fundamentals of technology entrepreneurship, pioneered in Silicon Valley and now spreading across the world. Students learnt the process technology entrepreneurs use to start companies, which involves taking a technology idea and finding a high-potential commercial opportunity, gathering resources such as talent and capital, figuring out how to sell and market the idea, and managing rapid growth.

Professor Chuck Eesley, Assistant Professor, Department of Management Science and Engineering
